Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose

The museum collection represents works of arts or historically significant items in the filed of puppetry that are held for public exhibition in the Organization's museum or exhibits. The Organization's policy is to capitalize all collections at cost or, for donated items, at fair market value at the time of the donation. In accordance with the Organization's policy, the proceeds from the sale of collection items must be used to acquire other collection items. The Organization has designated the collection as inexhaustible and, accordingly, does not record depreciation for these assets
